HALLMARK 2001

Rowland Hall-St. Mark's School
Salt Lake City, Utah
June 2001

This year the Hallmark staff dedicates the 2000-2001 yearbook to the dynamic husband and wife team of the Rowland Hall St. Mark's history department, both of whom continually impart their vast knowledge of the past on their students with a caring and humorous touch.

Ruth and Carl "Doc" Sturges are the very worthy recipients of this dedication. Both have had long and storied careers at RHSM, and it would be hard to find a student who has not been touched by both of these great teachers during their high school experience at Rowland Hall.

Doc has had a multifaceted career at RHSM including, debate coach, basketball coach, principal of the upper school, and his greatest and current role as history teacher for 11th and 12th grade.

Mrs. Sturges has been an integral part of the history staff at RHSM for 15 years. She has taught Western Civilizations and American History in her tenure.

Thank you both for your tireless contributions to RHSM. We love you and wish you the best, always and forever.

FIRST DAY OF SCHOOL

FREE FOOD AND DRINK BRINGS STUDENTS AND FACULTY BACK FOR ANOTHER YEAR TOGETHER.

Carlos came for the donuts, but stayed for the education.

Caitlin Butler welcomes Fletcher Reveley back by directing him to the muffin basket.

Rob is obviously more excited than Megan about being a Senior.

Graham Sorensen and Mark Petersen come back for seconds, and even thirds.

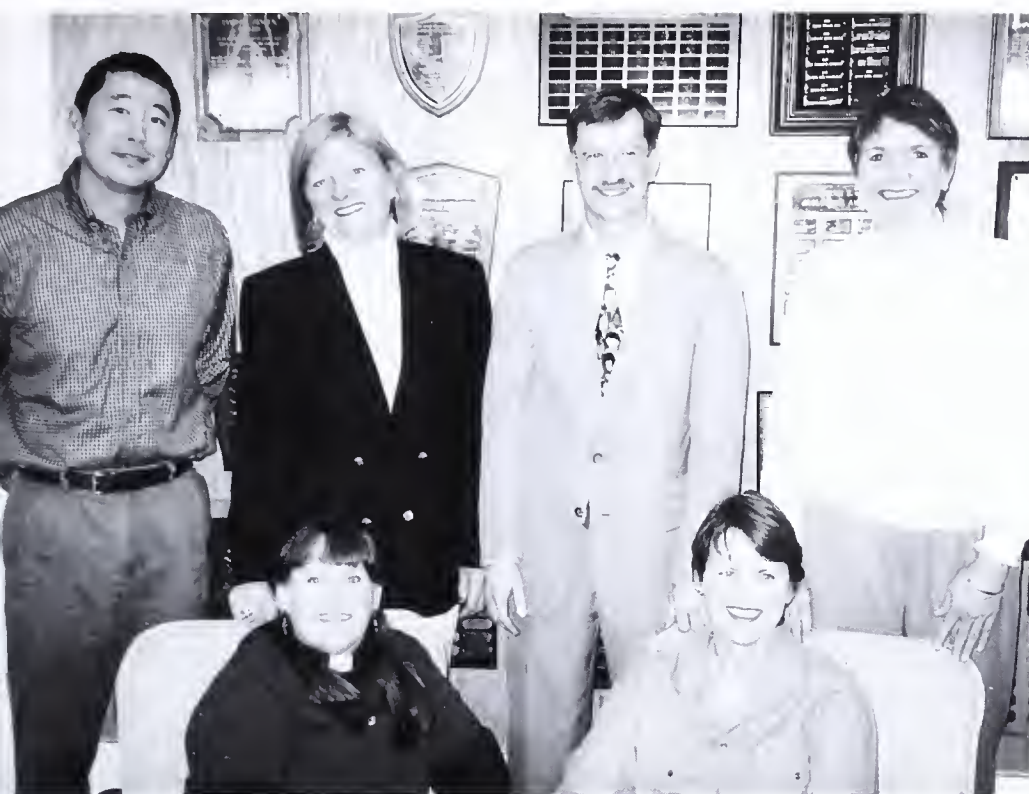

Georgia, Bailey, Danielle, Polly and Pauline are happy to be back, and not to be lowly Freshmen anymore.

Say it ain't so! Historian Libby Thomas can't bear to be taking videos of her last year at RHSM.

THE FRESHMEN

The new ones in the school

We, the freshmen, have made a huge step in life with our first step in the high school. We are a bunch of people who are friendly, hard-working, and enthusiastic. We've made it through the difficult year, and will never forget it.

Our first major high school experience was the freshmen trip in Kanab. This gave us an opportunity to get to know the teachers and each other. There were several activities including: river projects, making dream catchers, hiking, and the sand dunes. Everyone had a good time at one point or another. We're sure everybody wishes that they could go back.

All of us freshmen have found this school year to be difficult. However, we all found it to be worth it, and have had a great time together.

Wonder who got more attention: Rich Eagar, Henry Byer, Conor Bentley, and Marcus Anderson or the girls' volleyball team?

The boys basketball team's biggest fans Henry Byer and Marcus Anderson. These boys attended all games no matter how far away!

The women's basketball team had yet another terrific season under the leadership of Coach Teresa Totorica and her plethora of assistants including Jake Shewmake, Terri Graves and always energetic and vocal Criss Cornwell. The girls made it to the region tournament with an outstanding 12-7 record, giving them second position. Unfortunately injuries to key players caused them to lose both games in the tournament by small margins. With a strong senior squad and talented under-classmen the team gave the fans many solid victories at home as well as a stunning last second road victory over Grantsville where Makiko won the game on a half-court shot. The J.V. team also had a thrilling triple overtime home win against Grantsville.

Nice Dunk, MARY KIMBALL!

MEN'S VARSITY BASKETBALL

The RHSM Winged Lions had some big shoes to fill after last year's team took 4th place in the state tournament. But they were able to craft some stunning victories and make it back to the region tournament with a heart-stopping performance in a one-point loss to second-ranked Beaver. Led by the varsity tri-captains Mike Elliott, Koshlan Mayer-Blackwell, and John Drake, the team overcame injuries to key players and incorporated new plays to end the season with the second best win record in Rowland Hall men's basketball since moving to 2A. With their 11-11 record the team used their 3-point shooting prowess to strike fear into the hearts of such teams as Grantsville, South Summit, and Juan Diego. Congratulations on a superb season.

Student Council

This year, the RHSM student council consisted of an enthusiastic, hard working group of students. Under the leadership of Dave Hausser, they were able to introduce a number of new, creative and successful events, including the hugely popular fundraiser, Steakfest, the Binary Masquerade and the re-formatted Battle of the Classes. The formal dances were also the most succesful in recent RHSM history. Everyone in student government worked hard to pump up school spirit, encourage community service, and make the year a memorable one.

This year National Honor Society had a great year under the leadership of President Megan Hillyard, Vice President Liza Springmeyer and Secretary Heather Matheson. Adopt-a-Block was another huge success. Students raked yards, washed windows, and weeded gardens; the neighbors were incredibly grateful. Members also participated in the Crossroads Urban Center Thanksgiving and Christmas Food Give -Aways. Perhaps most succesful was the Headstart-party for the young preschoolers across the street. Students helped the children decorate cookies, make puppets and learn dances. Members of NHS were also encouraged to participate in community service projects individually and outside of school.

The French Club had a number of successful events this year. Co-presidents Nick Teske, Rekha Shetty and Preston Nielson as well as VP Libby Thomas, Secretary Vanessa Clayton and Treasurer Sarah Lappe led the club. With the help of all French students, the club collected, packed and shipped many boxes of books to a developing school in Belize. Members also collected piles of canned food for the Utah AIDS Foundation. The French Club also held a wildly popular dance at Club Axis to help fund these projects. "Sunday Night Fever" allowed RHSM students to boogie down at a real club with a professional DJ.

In their year-long quest to make school life more interesting, they plan to host a Toga Party for the entire high school later in the year. LIBRARY

THE STADIUM FOR STUDYING

Everybody loves going to the library to either study, read, or log on to the internet. If you need any library service you can always ask either Suzette Smith or Pam Stone. What would Rowland Hall be without a library? What would a library be without Rowland Hall?

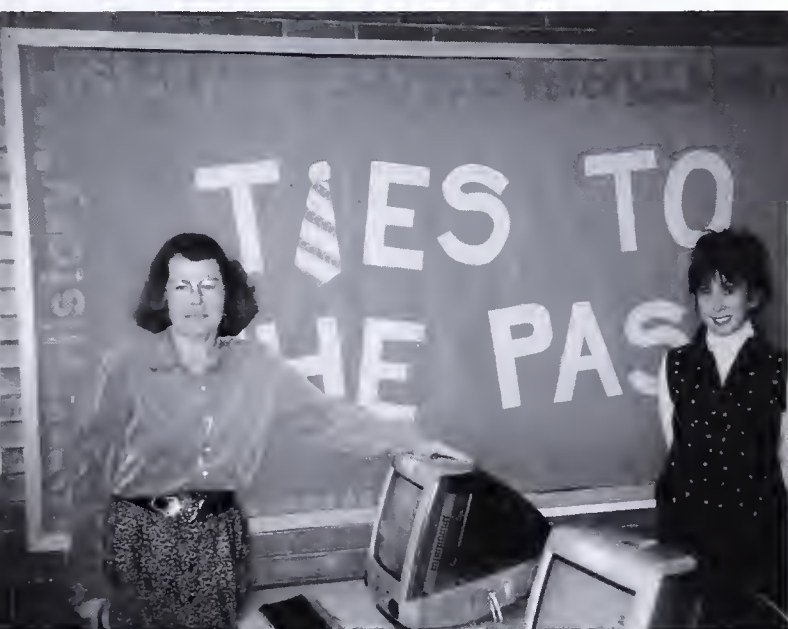

LIBRARY FACTS:

The Rowland Hall-St. Mark's Lincoln Street campus Eccles library has many secrets. These are but a few tips on the old iceberg:

- Contains over 7500 books and magazines
- Contains over 500 videos which would take over one and one-third years to watch
- There are 8 IMacs that can be used
- There is a new display in the cabinet every month
- You can borrow boom boxes, overheads, TVs, or VCRs
- However, the library does not have a scanner!

This year's Fall Musical was Meredith Willson's American classic "The Music Man". Once again, Traci Brand, Kathy Gleaves, and Joan Kingston were at the helm, bringing the story of 1912 Iowa to the Rowland Hall stage. "The Music Man" tells the story of a traveling con-artist, Professor Harold Hill (Conor Bentley), who sells boy's bands to unsuspecting mid-Western cities, even though he cannot read a note of music himself.

He begins to swindle the stubborn folks of River City with the help of his old partner Marcellus (Henry Byer), but as he continues to hoodwink the town he begins to have real feelings for Marian Paroo (Mary Anne Wetzel) the local librarian and music teacher. Before he can take the money and run, Harold decides he is really in love with Marian and stays in River City to face the music, literally.

The Cast of Upper, Lower and Middle Schoolers, and Faculty, with the help of the Directors, did a fantastic job bringing unforgettable numbers like, "Trouble", "76 Trombones", "Wells Fargo Wagon" and "Goodnight my Someone" to life. "The Music Man" was an exciting show for performers and patrons alike.

And from the yearbook staff, a hearty thank you to all those in the school who helped us out, who indulged us as we kept badgering you for information (and an apology to those of you who we didn't badger!). This is really a book about the school, and we hope you feel that it genuinely reflects the school year 2000-2001 at the Rowland Hall-St. Mark's upper school. We have tried to include as many people as possible, and we apologize to those who were left out. We want to especially thank the administration, Headmaster Alan Sparrow, Principal Mary Ann Rees, Assistant Principal Michael Yea, the front office staff who helped us with information, and all the faculty who guided us along the way.

Advice From The Big Screen

1. Life moves pretty fast. If you don't stop to look around once in a while, you could miss it.
2. Being young and beautiful is not a crime.
3. Life is pain. Anyone who says differently is selling something.
4. Maybe there won't be marriage, maybe there won't be sex, but by God, there will be dancing.
5. Come to Los Angeles. The sun shines bright, the beaches are wide and inviting, and the orange groves stretch as far as the eye can see.
6. Remember, Sparky, no matter what they tell you, you can never have too much sugar.
7. My fellow graduates, the answer is---I don't know.
8. Remember, crazy, not stupid.
9. Hamburgers. The cornerstone of any nutritious breakfast.
10. It's suppose to be hard! If it wasn't hard everyone would do it. The hard is what makes it great.

Mere alcohol doesn't thrill me at all
So tell me why should it be true
That I get a kick out of you

Flying so high with some guy in the sky
Is my idea of nothing to do
But I get a kick out of you (Cole Porter)
